

ORGANIZERS WORK WITH THE VOTERS OF VALENCIA

Both Republicans and Democrats Manifest Lively Interest in Situation: Ernest Didier Gets Into Quarrel.

Special Correspondence to the Herald) Valencia, N. M., Oct. 19.—With the announcement that the Republican county convention will be held on October 28, interest in matters political has taken a decided advance.

The Democrats have already nominated a full ticket and the candidates nominated by this fusion party are working hard throughout the county in building votes.

On Monday evening Ernest Didier of Belen had a quarrel with a man named Aranda, and during the mix-up Ernest Didier thought it necessary to pull a gun.

Attorney William H. Kelley of Socorro has been in Belen for a few days this week. He was here in connection with the taking of a considerable quantity of evidence before a special master, under the order of the district court for the Seventh judicial district.

Harry P. Green of Albuquerque was a business caller in Belen on Wednesday, returning to his home on the early morning train Thursday.

On Wednesday Benjamin Gooch left Belen for a business trip to Arizona. Mr. Gooch is making the trip in a wagon.

NOVEL PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT AT SANITORIUM

Patients at Dr. Shortle's Institution Hold Clever and Interesting Affair for Benefit of Selves and Guests.

Among the many who come to Albuquerque in search of health there are representatives of all classes—men and women of all trades, ages and professions.

The following rules and regulations are laid down, following the first announcement.

Each member of the society is privileged to bring as guests one sympathetic friend not a member.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to establish a pension fund for sanatorium patients who are unable to work and are thus reduced to the necessity of working for their support.

Stamps and thermometers may be checked at the entrance if desired, and called for when needed.

During the intermissions guests will please refrain from transacting the least or smoking the pipes.

The management will not be responsible for the safety of guests who become lost in connection with the program.

Conducting of Dr. and Mrs. Shortle to seats of honor, followed by the "Chautauque" salute from the society.

Address, "Patients versus Doctors," by Dr. Shortle.
